

Pepco C&I Energy Savings Program Overview

Join us to see how you may increase your sales starting today!

Business owners are constantly struggling to keep pace with rising costs. When your customers save electricity, they save money. And now, not only can they benefit from lower energy costs, but also from cash incentives provided by Pepco for installing approved energy efficiency technologies. This may mean increased sales for you. Dominion Electric Supply Co. is an approved Trade Ally for the Pepco C&I Energy Savings Program and we want to help build your business. We can assist you and your customers when they are in need of an energy efficiency specialist.

Sign up today to learn more about the program, its benefits and what it means to you. Pepco's C&I Energy Savings Program representatives Nick Keller and Cliff Madsen will be on hand to present all the details of the program.
